(From Saturday's Herald.)

Wants $10,000 for the house as assistance in building a new house in that place.

Kates yesterday bought from Gray the building and lot now owned by Tom Brown for $4,000. The price paid was $4,000.

Geo. A. Tre-Jewell who has been dropping in town for some time, has been appointed to visit and report on the Total Wreck mine, in Cochise County. The mine is to be bonded for $300,000.

That business is looking up in and about Phoenix may be inferred from the price at which our real estate sells along the main business street as indicated by a late sale, noted elsewhere of a lot and a good building for $3,000.

Tom Brown's Tiger Saloon is closed for a day or two pending a rearrangement and cleaning up of the interior. The walls are to be nicely papered and the woodwork generally repainted and everything put into first-class style.

Our summary of telegraphic dispatches a day or two ago gave information of the completion of the "Sunset" route opening direct communication between San Francisco and New Orleans. To-day's dispatches give an account of the ceremony of driving the last spike.

The Methodist Church South has organized a Sunday school with an enrolled membership of 62.

The people of the M. E. Church South have succeeded in raising $200, which they have sent off for a handsome organ.

The public school opened today with every prospect of a successful term. In Mrs. C. H. Bury's room there were 23 pupils; Miss Julia Dol's room 29; Mrs. S. E. Cox's room 41; and in the Principal's room 34.

Mr. Ed. Wilson, of Peter Brix's music hall, has done a handsome job of scene painting for the cozy little stage at that place. Mr. Brix will increase the number of stage people at his place in a day or two and a first-class entertainment is promised.

Our Iowa Marshal, Mr. Henry Garfias, yesterday met with quite a costly experience. While out driving one of Gibson's teams, in passing Mr. Wm. Isaac's team the wagon rolled, and the team Mr. Garfias drove becoming frightened and unmanageable broke away from him and smashed his buggy almost to flinders. No one hurt we believe.

A most interesting occasion called together the good people of the Catholic Church at Tempe yesterday morning to witness the marriage of Mr. P. C. Shannon and Miss Christina Osteratz, of that place, the Rev. Father Blaise of this place officiating. The Herald acknowledges the courtesies of the occasion and wishes many long and happy years to the newly married couple. May the sun shine brightest, the grass grow ever green and the flowers bloom sweetest in their path of life. Miss Osteratz who has not been a member of the Catholic church was admitted to the church before the marriage.

Mr. P. Minor has grown somewhat taller in the past day or two. One more of a family at home is the case.

Mr. L. L. St. Ormand, of Yuma, will start a paper in that place this week. He has our congratulations and good wishes for the property of the concern.

The Arizona Telegraph Co. have made arrangements to build a line from Prescott to Ash Fork on the A. & P. R. R. Mr. M. V. Howard, a very efficient operator will manage the line.

Since writing our editorial on Hon. Judge Hoover we have come in possession of information, which if true, would cause us to take it all back. We hope, however, that there is a mistake somewhere in the matter.

We clip from the Courier the following interesting little items respecting our two Assembliesmen:

Hon. J. P. Holcomb is from the good State of North Carolina, where he was born in 1836. He has been in this Territory many years and is a prosperous farmer.

Hon. S. F. Webb, of Maricopa, was born in California in 1833. He has been in this Territory about five years and is a successful farmer and stock-raiser.

MARRIED.

SHANNON—OSTERTAG—At San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 15, 1893, by the Rev. Father Blaise, of Phoenix, on Sunday morning, Jan. 14, 1893, Mr. Pierce Carriel Shannon and Miss Christina Osteratz, all of Hayden's Ferry.

REMOVED.

"Well's Health" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility. $1.

We give place to the following report of a Coroner's jury at Wickenburg some two months since on the body of an unknown man, as it is possible that the man may have acquaintances or friends desirous of knowing what has become of him: WICKENBURG, Nov. 23, 1892. 9 o'clock P. M.

Held Coroner's jury on one unknown man who died today in the rear room of George H. Barney's saloon.

G. A. Treadwell was nominated and elected Foreman and John M. Wright, George Monroe, J. H. Egliff, Henry A. Kremp, Daniel Burk, C. H. Brown, Jurors.

Jury, being sworn in, proceeded to examine the corpse, found $16.75 in money but found no papers to give any clue to his name or where he belonged. He had gray blankets, a box of grub and a bag of little things, such as scissors, needles, bees-wax, thread, buttons matches, pipe, tobacco, etc.; showing him to be a careful person of little things for personal comfort, such as a hard-working man might use, his hands showed him to be a working man.

The first joint of his second finger left hand, was missing; his hair was mostly gray; he looked to be about fifty years of age and about five feet and eight inches high. His legs and body were covered with large purple spots up to his ribs, none of us knew what it was, no doctor was nearer than Vulture so we could not hear his advice; sores on his legs below the knees looked like syphilis; his undershirt and drawers was new red flannel.

David Van Orden sworn: Says he did not know the man's name says he got on the freight train in the morning of the 19th of November at Prescott to go to Maricopa that he then appeared well and walked on ahead two or three miles at the start then got on the team and did not complain of being sick until that night; he did not know where he was going from there; he said he had either been cutting or hauling wood, and said he used to freight from Ehrenburg into Prescott; he also said he came to Denver in 1883, and to California in 1890; he got off here a little after 11 A. M., today; he only took one glass of whisky on the trip which I gave him from my bottle.

Mr. Barney made the remark, when they took him into his house from the team, that he would live but a short time; I do not own the team Mr. August Smith is the owner; we team from Maricopa to Prescott. No more questions to ask we let him go.

George H. Barney was sworn; he says that the man was brought into the room in the rear of his saloon where he now lives, from a freight team driven by David Van Orden, about 11 A. M., today; he was very sick with high fever; laid him on a mattress with blankets as we found him; he did not drink any liquor; I gave him a small dose of quinine on the point of a pocket-knife blade; did not learn his name; he called for water; he did not talk but little; he soon died. That was all asked this witness; he said he did not know any more of the case so he was dismissed.

The jury found the man was still warm and came to the conclusion that the unknown man came to his death from causes unknown to them so advised that he buried next morning.

There being no Justice of the Peace in the place, the Foreman had to swear the jury.

C. A. TREADWELL, Foreman.

NOTE.—November 23rd I placed the $16.75 in the hands of George H. Barney, also the few things the man left, to be kept for the call of Public Administrator of this county, and told Barney to notify that officer of the fact, I also told Barney to pay the expenses of the funeral out of the $16.75. The man was buried this day in the burial ground of this town.

G. A. TREADWELL, Deputacion de Puenosanta.

The city council has notices posted up in several places prohibiting people from occupying the sidewalks to the exclusion of passersby. These notices have been posted at Chas. Brown's, the Comet saloon, the Palace Hotel, and Yonhas drugstore.

This is a good measure, as some men will not get out of the way to allow ladies or anybody else to pass, whilst they are gossiping or lounging on the sidewalks and thereby cause great annoyance to busy people who cannot run into the mud in order to leave loafers undisturbed.—Tucson Star.

Pinal Drill: Mr. Kinney, Chief engineer of the Silver King mill, returned from his trip to California. ... Rev. Mr. Franches preached a very instructive sermon on the "Free will of Man," in the church, on Sunday night. We are glad to see the church so well attended.

Al George, the man who was recently killed in the Dragon mountain by the Indians, is reported to have been a hard character and lying under the suspicion of having made way with several men at different times whom he was guiding through the mountains.

Tucson Citizen: Deming is reported to be building up rapidly. ... Cattle have doubled in value within three years. ... Good beef is worth from ten to twenty cents per pound. ... Tucson is remarkable for its good order and bad streets. ... The emigration going westward is slightly heavier than that going east. ... The daily maximum temperature in Tucson varies between sixty and seventy degrees above zero. ... Don Sanford, on Pennington street, is making the largest improvements of any man in town at present. ... Tucson police are paid at the rate of one hundred dollars per month, and are on duty twelve hours out of the twenty-four. ... The religious element in Tucson is fairly but not largely represented. ... The Fashion opera house will give its initial performance to-night. ... The department southward by stage average about eight or ten daily. ... It is the intention of the friends of the late W. R.
